

1. Portrait of a Man (1862 - 1934)

"My life has been extremely hectic since my return to Europe: a life of business frequently confronted by difficulties and conflicts, sometimes serious, and that I have not provoked, a life of intellectual effort and absorbing but generally unrewarded propaganda, due to indifference and incomprehension on the part of those one wants to save from themselves... I am desperate for our children who are innocent of our mistakes. You and I and some others have done our duty; that is our only consolation, considerable though it is."

Henri Lambert (letter to Frank Wright Garrison – August 26, 1922)
